GARLAND SINGLETON

The democratic standard bearer in the race for school superintendent is 33 years of age, with a wife and three children. He has been prominently identified with the public schools for a number of years and has always taken a great interest in educational affairs. Since he entered the service, he has taught eight schools to the entire satisfaction of trustees and patrons, who recognize that his first-class certificate was won purely on merit. Mr. Singleton is a modest, retiring gentleman, who enjoys to the fullest extent the confidence of his neighbors, who will vote for him almost to a man, regardless of politics. He is highly appreciative of the honor conferred upon him by his party and will prove that their confidence is not misplaced.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. W. E. Smith will preach at McKendree Wednesday night.

Rev. Borum's meeting at London brought 18 souls into the Baptist fold.

Rev. J. B. Crouch filled Rev. J. F. Williams' pulpit at Harrodsburg Sunday.

Rev. George O. Barnes began a 10 days' meeting in Elizabethtown Sunday night.

Revs. Brooks and Shouse are holding a splendid meeting at Turnersville. There have been several additions.

Schlatter, the so-called divine healer, died at El Paso, Texas. He claimed to heal others, but himself he couldn't heal.

Bishop Dudley and four other Episcopal bishops have sailed from New York for Europe to attend the Lambeth Congress.

The Central Holiness camp meeting will assemble for its fourth annual encampment at Wilmore July 13th, and close 22. The railroads will give low rates.

A fire of mysterious origin broke out in the Broadway M. E. church, South, Louisville, Saturday night and before the flames were extinguished a fine pipe organ valued at $1,500, was ruined.

The new Baptist Year Book, edited by the Rev. L. Burrows, a former Kentucky pastor, gives these statistics: Associations, 1,567; Sunday schools, 23,787; ministers, 28,257; churches, 40,658; Sunday school officers, 164,431; Sunday school scholars, 1,590,190; church members, 3,824,038; value of churches, $84,039,595. Estimating the population at 70,000,000 the statistics show one Baptist for every 18 of population.

Rev. J. H. Fagaly, who has been holding a meeting in an arbor near Ottenheim, tells us that he has had a wonderfully good meeting, with 36 conversions and sanctifications to Saturday last. On the 12th he will begin a meeting at Alum Springs in Boyle county. Mr. Fagaly has had charge of the Beatyville circuit, which embraced nine churches and included all of Lee and a part of Wolfe county. From the nearest to his furthest church was 50 miles and he had to travel on horseback as the roads did not admit of light vehicles.

The voracious and mendacious correspondent at Sulphur says this note tied to a piece of coal was found in Trimble county half buried in the ground as if it had fallen from a great height: "Mid-air, May 15.—Airship drifting 13 days. Unable to steer it or descend. Rations all consumed and only two gallons of water left. Unless rescued within 48 hours all must perish."—Galewell."

The Princess Troubetskoy, known under her maiden of Amelie Rives as the author of "The Quick or the Dead" is a patient in a private sanitarium in Philadelphia, having been completely broken down in her work on another novel.

George Hinckley, of Portsmouth, O., a rigid prohibitionist, was bitten by a copperhead snake and although whisky has been prescribed by a half dozen doctors he refuses to touch it.

Austin Gollaher, who died last week in Hardin county, aged 93, was the last of the many thousand who claimed to have romped with Liacolo on the green sward of a country school.

LANCASTER.

Mrs. George T. Farris will go to Jellico Wednesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Smith.

J. Mort Rothwell has returned from Missouri. H. Clay Hamilton has withdrawn from the race for police judge.

On Thursday night a large barn belonging to Henry Patterson was consumed. Luckily there was no stock and but little provender in it.

School Superintendent J. Hunt McMartry has finished the census for this year. It shows 3,030 white children in the school age, being 79 less than the number listed last year, and 1,231 colored children, or three more than the list of last year.

Robert Henry, Paul Miller, Walter Hammock, Saufley Hughes and Misses Alberta Anderson, Minnie West, Florence Harris and Bettie Henry attended a strawberry supper at Elliott Institute, Kirksville, Friday night. They report a delightful time and plenty to eat.

Not having much business about banks, I failed to mention in my last that A. R. Denny was elected president of the National Bank, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of W. R. Robinson, and J. E. Stormes was elected vice-president, taking the place of Mr. Denny.

Pendleton Cox was elected a school trustee in the Antioch district Saturday on the free turnpike issue. Why not select teachers and ministers who advocate the same system? It would be consistent with the foolish and unwarranted manner in which an attempt is made to hold candidates for judicial offices responsible for their views on a single question in the settlement of which they would have no more to do than a baboon in the wilds of Africa.

Our boys who attended the convention last week submit like true democrats to the will of the majority and assert that Shackelford will win by a majority of 40,000. W. B. Mason, our popular and competent candidate, says that this campaign has introduced him to the people and being the youngest one in the last contest, he hopes to try them again in the future. This cheerful submission should be a lesson for all democrats and they should learn it well.

J. William Hamilton, brother of Postmaster Hamilton, and an enthusiastic democrat, is a candidate for the nomination for the office of circuit clerk. He is young, intelligent, a hard student and if elected would discharge his duties faithfully. The fact that he is crippled and needs the office will doubtless do much toward insuring him a liberal support. Democratic candidates for other offices have been mentioned and they would make a formidable ticket, but there is ample time to announce, as nominations will not likely be made before August.

Lancaster will have three important society events this week. I write of them in advance, as arrangements are consummated. Circles in young society will lose three of the most beautiful, popular and gifted young ladies in this section and two of our most popular and worthy young men and a gentleman from Texas are fortunate enough to form a partnership for life with them. Miss Alice Fox Young and Mr. Clarence Witwer, of Dallas, Texas, will be married at 9:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning at the residence of the bride's grandfather, Capt. F. J. White. Immediately afterward Miss Mattie Walker and Mr. Geo. D. Robinson will be married at the residence of the bride's father, Judge W. E. Walker, Rev. Henry N. Faulconer officiating. A wedding breakfast will be given at Judge Walker's and the two couples will leave for a tour through the South. The third marriage, which has already been mentioned in the INTERIOR JOURNAL, will take place at 8 o'clock Thursday night, when Miss Ellen Owsley and William R. Cook will be married in the Christian church by Elder George Gowen, after which Mrs. J. B. Kinnaird, sister of the bride, will entertain the couple and a number of friends at her home on Lexington Ave. All the friends and acquaintances of Miss Alice Young are invited to attend her wedding at Capt. White's Wednesday morning. I congratulate the young men in advance and wish the young ladies a long, happy life. May real life prove to be as blessed as the romantic and may their brightest hopes be realized.

The patrons of the colored school in this city had a very exciting election for trustee last Saturday, resulting in the election of Henry Tevis by 31 votes. Tevis was running in the interest of R. W. Fletcher, who has taught the school for several terms. Fletcher has considerable influence with his race and the leaders, in a republican convention, ruled him out on one occasion because he opposed their man. In the last Congressional race he and his followers were strong Smith men and opposed the Davison faction. It is now claimed that in order to conciliate him white republicans helped to elect Tevis, who was running in his interest. It is said that even Congressman Davison wrote a letter to parties here to be sure to elect Fletcher's man. This way of mixing schools and politics is not approved by the opposition and they claim to have 100 substantial colored men who will support the democratic ticket. In fact the best informed of the colored race are beginning to realize that they have only exchanged a state of social bondage for a political thralldom the fetters of which are more galling than those worn in ante-bellum days; that when they offered a man for office he was defeated, although the leaders elect the white man every time he offers for office. They have also learned that the democrats pay $9 of every $10 that goes for the education of their children. In view of these facts it is proposed that they throw off party shackles, declare themselves free from being used as mere tools, in the interest of certain men, and vote for those who are less antagonistic to their welfare, and who are aiding in the mental and moral illumination of a once benighted race. This will be done when they see things as they really exist.

MISS IDA MAY ADAMS.

Daughter of Willis Adams, of Mt. Vernon, who will take part in the contest here on the 18th. She has recently graduated at the Mt. Vernon College where, although but 15 years of age, she won the honors of her class and delivered the valedictory address. Those who know her say she has extraordinary gifts of elocution.

MATRIMONIAL.

M. J. Mills, aged 48, and Miss Jennie Ellis, 29, died near Powers, Casey county, last week.

Tommy Dooley, just 16, and Susie Wright, 17, eloped from Salem to Indianapolis and were married.

Fred Gerhauser, of Covington, and Miss Ruth E. Kelley, of this county, were married at the bride's home yesterday.

Mrs. Ella Bowman, of Bloomington, Ind., got a verdict against a former husband for $5,000 damages for breach of promise to marry her the second time.

Miss Dora Bingham and W. B. King, of Knox county, were married in Jeffersonville. They kept the marriage a secret for nearly a week. The groom is a son of Representative B. B. King, of this county.

Miss Lillie Fleetwood, a member of the senior class at the Normal School at Milledgeville, Ga., slipped away and married W. E. Moon. She then returned to school and received her diploma.

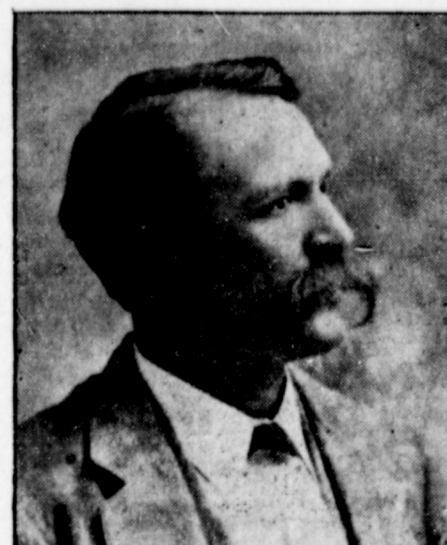

Lawyer D. W. Chenault, of Richmond, and Miss Elizabeth Reid, of Mt. Sterling, are to be married June 30. Miss Reid is one of Mt. Sterling's belles and a niece of the late Judge Richard Reid.

It never rains but it pours. Lancaster hasn't had a marriage for a long time, till this week when three of her prettiest girls will become wives: Misses Alice Fox Young, Mattie Walker and Ellen Owsley.

The marriage of Lieut. Carlo Britton, of the United States Navy, to Miss Mamie Baldwin, of Madison county, is announced to take place at the Christian church June 29. The bride-to-be is a sister of Mrs. W. H. Shanks, of this place and is a very attractive young lady.

Miss Isabel Perkins, who is to be married to Larz Anderson June 10, is the greatest heiress in Boston. She only has the interest on $17,000,000 at the present time, but within a year she will come into possession of this money. Besides this she is an only child and is the heir apparent to her mother's fortune, which amounts to more than $20,000,000.

Mr. John Stout and Miss Patty Gentry of Danville, will be married tomorrow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Solon P. Eastland, Danville. The groom is in business with his brother-in-law, Capt. E. M. Lillard, in Danville, and is a man of wealth and social position. Miss Gentry is a niece of James H. Engleman, of the Farmers' Bank.

SAM M. OWENS.

Democratic nominee for sheriff, won his preferment by indefatigable effort, as he will win in the final race by the same means. He is a tireless worker and being a worthy and competent man, besides a democrat who can always be depended upon to stand up for the cause and ticket, the party will rally to his support and see that he is given the coveted office. Mr. Owens was born in Wayne county 39 years ago, but has lived in this county for 29 years or more. He married Miss Florence Bibb, who is a handsome and excellent lady, and they have one child. He served two terms as jailer and made an excellent record as a faithful officer. He deserves the promotion and every democrat should see that he gets it.

HUSTONVILLE.

J. C. Coulter has completed his contract for 1,000 cords of tan bark to be delivered to Cincinnati parties.

Mrs. Nannie W. Owens, of Kentucky's Niagara, Cumberland Falls, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John S. Goode.

Hon. Harvey Helm, of your city, with June Reid and several other West Enders with a large pack of hounds, made times very lively for foxes, &c., in this section the last of last week.

The ladies of the Christian church of Liberty will give a strawberry supper at the court-house in Liberty on Tuesday night, June 8th. The proceeds are to go toward building a new church the coming summer at that place.

The sale of R. R. tickets at Moreland for the month of May was only $163.15, the smallest amount taken in at that office for several years. Since confidence and prosperity has been fully restored we don't have to travel near so much as formerly.

Hon. R. C. Warren and brother, Wm. Warren, were here last week looking after the welfare of the Danville & Hustonville turnpike road, in which they are both much interested. The writer is informed that some of the witnesses they interviewed will furnish testimony very detrimental to the road's interest.

Children's day at the Christian church here was a grand and long to be remembered one. The church was crowded to its fullest capacity and the program, taking almost two hours to render, was so well given and enjoyed that to particularize any special ones taking part in it would be necessary to repeat it so often that time and space would forbid. The collection was $19.46 for foreign mission.

This from the Courier Journal is supposed to refer to Auditor Stone: The one member of the State government who has been supposed to be wealthy, has had to sell a farm large enough and rich enough for a dukedom, to settle his debts, and his estate is in the hands of a trustee. The path to political preferment is always a costly one, but when a man abandons a bluegrass farm like this, to draw the meagre salary of an inconspicuous office, one can only marvel at the folly or ambition that dictates the step.

Thomas Moran, an Indianapolis crank, fell from exhaustion for want of food and sleep. In his pockets were found $442 and after he revived he admitted that he was too stingy to spend it.

Richard B. McConnell, president of the Merchants' National Bank of Ocala, Fla., shot and killed himself in order to escape arrest in connection with the failure of the bank.

Robertson county turnpike raiders have introduced a variation by threatening to lynch a letter carrier if he does not stop paying turnpike tolls.

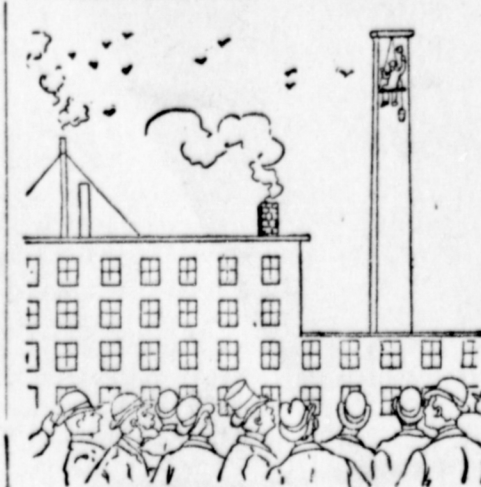

Charles Gilliland, living near Birmingham, Ala., cut his son-in-law, Harris Patton, to death because he had whipped the former's little son.

Employees of Jones & Laughlin, Pittsburgh, Pa., to the number of 3,700, have gone on a strike. Their places will be filled by non-union men.

Theodore Durrant has been granted an appeal to the United States supreme court and he will not be hanged next Friday at Quinten, Cal.

A balloonist named Walters fell from his balloon when he had reached the height of 100 feet at Circleville, Iowa, and was instantly killed.

A bank teller at Dover, Del., is $38,000 short and missing.

THE greatest gathering of Confederate soldiers and sailors since they laid down their arms in 1865 will occur at Nashville, June 22-24. Gen. John B. Gordon, ex-Senator from Georgia, is commander of the United Confederate Veterans, of which there are now 973 camps. Most of these with thousands of others who do not belong to the camps will be there and it will be a reunion of spirits who 30-odd years ago had but a single thought—that of protecting their homes and the institutions they regarded as sacred. These men are the flower of the earth and have lived and thrived without aid and without pensions. Business of vital importance to every soldier will be transacted as steps will be taken to provide for the sick and destitute veterans, their wives and children, see that the graves of their dead are properly marked, secure the best methods to have an impartial history of the war published, provide a monument for ex-President Jefferson Davis and assist in the promotion and completion of the proposed "Battle Abbey." Every Confederate of this vicinity should make it a point to go. Pleasant accommodations will be provided and the L. & N. has put the round-trip fare down to the nominal figure of $4.60, tickets good to go 21st to 23d and to return in 10 days.

THE boltoocrats have called a convention to meet at Louisville, July 14, to nominate a candidate for appellate clerk. County conventions will be held the Saturday previous and the representation will be one delegate for every 200 votes cast for Cleveland in 1892. The matter might have been much more simplified by calling all those who voted for Palmer and Buckner together. Leiderkranz Hall would hold them easily enough and they would all go since transportation will doubtless be furnished them. That broken down and out-of-a-job fraud, W. D. Bynum, of Indianapolis, was present at the meeting in Louisville Saturday and advised a vigorous campaign. It is just such fellows as Bynum that helps to keep the factions of the party apart. His only hope for a salary is from the gold bugs who are paying him to foment discord and he is trying to earn the pittance that he is paid. There will doubtless be a fusion of the boltoocrats and republicans, but it will avail nothing. The people are tired of republican rule and republican promises, which are never fulfilled and will not be led astray again. The nominee of the Frankfort convention will be elected or all signs of popular discontent over prevailing circumstances go for naught.

THE democratic nominee for appellate clerk, Mr. Samuel J. Shackelford, of Owensboro, although a little past 30, has been sheriff of two counties, Hopkins and Daviess, and was sergeant-at-arms of the Senate during the long term a few years ago. He is a man of fine address and will make friends wherever he goes. He is a born politician and has worked the wires most successfully, with such men as Urey Woodson and others to help him. Under the arrangement Gus W. Richardson, one of his opponents, is to be his chief deputy, and Owen Cochran another deputy. The office pays the incumbent $4,000. The deputies get $3,000 and $2,000 respectively. The final vote in the convention, which was on the 10th ballot, was, Shackelford 558; Greene 535; Lincoln, Casey and Gardner voting for the winner. "Keg" Mason ran up to 126 votes and was dropped on the 6th ballot under the rule adopted by the convention. For the time he spent in seeking the nomination, he did well and has no reasons to feel discouraged. On the contrary he is in fine spirits and will see that his county does the nominee proud.

THERE is nothing left now but for the Courier-Journal and Post to go body and soul over to the republicans, but there is hope yet for the Times, if Emmett Logan is given half a show. Both of the first named have been utterly discredited by the party to which they formerly gave allegiance and they can do nothing now but fret and fume, with no constituency to do them honor but their former enemies.

Republicans of the 24th Ohio district nominated James A. Garfield, a son of the late president, for State Senator.

FOR once a mob has triumphed over the military. It occurred at Urbana, in the State of Ohio, which prides itself on its civilization, and the whole affair was disgraceful to all concerned. A Negro had been convicted and sentenced to 20 years for raping a white woman and was in the custody of the jailer, when demonstrations of mob violence became apparent. The sheriff, who has such power in Ohio, called out the local company of soldiers and placed them on duty at the jail. The mob continued to gather and to throw mud and stones at the young soldiers, and when finally they made a more violent attack, the sheriff ordered his men to fire. One round killed four and wounded a number of others and the men were preparing to fire a second time, when the mayor ordered them to desist, the keys of the jail were thrown to the mob and the wretch taken out more dead than alive and swung up. The infuriated mob then turned their attention to the sheriff, who had to run off to save his life. That the penalty for rape in Ohio is inadequate may be true, but that is a fault of the law, and there was no excuse for the mob, which would receive the execration of the entire Northern press if the deed had been done in the South. The victim was a Negro too and he was supposed to be in the house of his friends, but human nature is the same nearly everywhere and men will continue to make examples of Negro brutes who commit crimes on white women whether they do so in Maine or Mississippi.

It is announced that the boltoocrats will nominate W. H. Yost for appellate clerk and that the republicans will endorse the nomination. Yost, it will be remembered, was superior judge and hails from Muhlenberg county. He strayed from democracy last fall and is slowly but surely finding his way into the republican fold. He is a man of tremendous physical proportions, but nature seems to have made a mistake and located his brains in his paunch instead of his head and to have given him an incessant itch for office. He is not responsible for the deformity which can not be remedied, but he is likely to be cured of the disease if he persists in the intention imputed to him.

WHAT is life without an office? Nothing to some men who seem to find no charm in it unless they are holding down a place, however unremunerative. Indian Agent Olive, of Georgia, on being removed from office in Utah to make way for a republican, decided that he was unequal to the conflict in the battle for bread without the butter, and immediately slew himself. Other men with an insatiable desire for office might emulate this bright example.

ALL the nominees of the April convention in Louisville, save perhaps one or two, made haste to enter the primaries of June 22, and there are 175 candidates for 80-odd offices. This insures but one democratic ticket and makes success sure. Charles D. Jacobs and Postmaster Weaver will contend for the mayoralty nomination.

POLITICS

Pulaski democrats will hold a convention at Somerset July 17 to select a county ticket.

Grover Cleveland declines to act as counsel for Venezuela before the arbitration tribunal.

Francis M. Griffith has been nominated for Congress by the democrats of the Fourth Indiana district to succeed Holman.

Charles W. Metcalf, of Pineville, who made a splendid race for the nomination for secretary of State, is an avowed candidate for that office again.

The sinking fund commissioners have advertised for bids to close July 15, for the $500,000 worth of bonds ordered to be sold by act of the Legislature.

In an interview ex-Gov. Matthews, of Indiana, expresses the opinion that the democratic party will win at the next election and that the issue will be the same as it was last year.

Senator Deboe refused to endorse Ben W. Hall for the Mt. Sterling post-office. Hall seeks to remove the present incumbent, whose commission does not expire for two years.

A gentleman from Danville, stopping at the Emery, says that 50 men who voted for McKinley, confidence and prosperity, participated in the democratic primaries there, thereby shifting their sentiments.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Congressman Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, the House leader of the democracy, has come out flatly for the re-nomination of William Jennings Bryan for president in 1900 but he wasn't very hot for him in 1896, though he made speeches for the ticket.

The president has nominated Ellis H. Roberts, of New York, to be treasurer of the United States, and Conrad N. Jordan to be assistant treasurer at New York City. Mr. Jordan is the present assistant treasurer at New York and a boltoocrat.

A fusion of the boltoocrats and republicans has been effected in the Bowling Green district. It is anything for office with certain fellows who have played out in their own party and want to get into the other by the sliding scale, not having the courage to go in to it direct.

The Louisville Times compares the adjournment of his court by Judge Nuttall to see the elephant swim the river, to the action of the court of appeals adjourning on account of the democratic convention. But there isn't much difference. The convention has named "a man who" will swim the river of success and drown the republican elephant in the swimming.—Covington Commonwealth.

This is what Blackburn said in his convention speech about boltoocrats: "I would have the gates thrown wide open for the return of every honest democrat who has been led astray. But the leaders were not led astray. They betrayed their party, and let it be your duty to see that they stay out of the democratic party. You can't get them back and what's more, they can't come back. Purge your party and make treason odious. The danger that lies before you is disintegration, because you have not yet drawn the lines tight enough. I counsel conservatism so far as the rank and file of our strayed brethren are concerned, but I counsel the guillotine and the gallows for the traitors who led them away."

WHILE attempting to catch an old family horse, which was out grazing, Mr. John Tomlinson, of McKinney, met with a painful accident. The animal turned and kicked just as he reached him and one of his feet struck Mr. Tomlinson in the face, breaking a jaw bone and otherwise disfiguring him.

THE "Mock Conference" of the young preachers from Asbury College closed yesterday after the red hottest religious service ever seen in Stanford and most of the young men left for the work assigned them during vacation. Rev. W. S. Grinstead preached for them yesterday on "The Superiority of Grace over Gifts," and gave them some excellent advice, warning them to shun fanaticism while prosecuting the holiness work. After the sermon there was a testimony, song and hand-shaking service, in which laughter, tears and shouts commingled and all seemed filled with an enthusiasm born of the blessing they have found. The meeting has been both a pleasant and profitable one. More than 25 have professed conversion and sanctification and at Sunday night's service 118 testified that they had received that peace that passeth all understanding. Many young ladies and others who had taken interest in the meetings followed the young men to the depot yesterday, where after singing a song, they bade them a tearful adieu. Revs. C. A. Bromley, C. H. Neal, W. E. Goldring, C. W. Terhune, E. T. Raney and W. E. Smith remained and will labor in this section for a while. Mr. Goldring, who is from Jamaica, was to have lectured on his country and its tropical plants at Rowland last night. He only charges 10c and the money is to aid him in the completion of his theological education. There seems to be a general regret on the part of those who attended the meetings that they are over. The singing, which was unusually fine, caught the attention of many, while the religious feeling that pervaded the services caused others to go and tarry. The 10-days' meeting will be long remembered and cherished by those who found the second blessing as well as those who got good out of it. Stanford bids the young men God speed and invites them to come among us again whenever it is convenient.

Among the preachers were three Canadians, one from Jamaica and several from other States. It got out that there was one Japanese and Rev. G. B. Kinney was taken for him and when he appeared he was eyed with much curiosity, greatly to his own discomfort and to the enjoyment of his friends.

J. C. MCCLARY is enlarging his residence on Highgate street.
MRS. NANNIE WEAREN went to Lexington Friday to visit her brother.

HARVEY STONE, the lineman, is down with inflammatory rheumatism.
MISS BERTIE HILTON, who has been very ill of appendicitis, is improving.

MISS MARY WOODSON, of the West End, is the guest of Mrs. Ed Wilkin-son.
DR. J. B. WILEY, of Bloomington, Ill., spent several days here prospect- ing.

REV. S. M. LOGAN spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Rich-mond.
MRS. NANNIE W. OWENS, of Cum-berland Falls, is visiting Mrs. S. M. Owens.

JOHN MEIER has been confined to his room for several days with a stomach trouble.
DR. R. R. HOURIGAN, of Marion, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ruple.

MISS MATTIE THOMPSON, of Lan-caster, spent several days with Miss Maggie Bright.
MRS. JOE COFFEY and Joe Lynn are down from Livingston the guests of Mrs. R. Williams.

MR. P. P. NUNNELLEY went up to Richmond Saturday to dispose of a bunch of yearlings.
MISS JOSEPHINE REID, who has been attending college at Glendale, O., returned home Friday.

CASHIER R. G. HAIL, of Somerset, spent Sunday with his mother here. He drove up in a buggy.
MRS. J. CARVER JONES, of Kansas City, will arrive to-night to visit her mother, Mrs. Martha Grimes.

MISS MARY CASH is at home from Hamilton College, from which she brought a well merited diploma.
MRS. DAISY BAKER and Mr. G. A. Walter, of Kingsville, were guests of friends here Sunday and yesterday.

MRS. R. H. CROW and children are visiting the family of Hon. J. A. Mitch-ell and other friends at Bowling Green.
JOHN B. BUCHANAN, who returned to Louisville yesterday, tells us that his father, Col. Buchanan, is somewhat better.

MRS. JOHN W. ROUNT and her moth-er, Mrs. Eliza Lackey, are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Jane Ballew, in Garrard.
MISS ALICE AND DORA BAUGH- MAN arrived from Danville yesterday. Miss Alice has been attending College at Nashville.

NATHAN ELLIOTT, son of Prof. Mil- ton Elliott, of Mayfield, will represent that town in the Chautauqua Oratori- cal contest at Lexington.
MISS ISABELLA BAILEY returned Saturday from Mexico, Mo., where she has been attending College, looking the picture of health and beauty.

BOSS DAVISON is back from Wash- ington and the more decent of his con- stituents will be glad to learn that he has apparently taken a much-needed bath.
THE Glasgow News says that Rev. W. E. Ellis has taken the lecture field and is making as great a name for him- self in that line as a minister of the gospel.

MR. H. R. BRIGHT, of Mt. Sterling, spent several days here with one of the handsomest widows in town. He is circuit clerk of Montgomery and a fine looking man.
MISS PEARL PHILLIPS returned to her home in Stanford the first of the week, after a visit with her friends, Misses Katherine and Lucile Waddell. -Somerset Paragon.

MISS MARY F. HOCKER, of Hender- son, remembers us with an invitation, which reads: Miss Towles at the Sem- inary to meet the Class of '97, Thurs- day, June 10th. Dancing. 8 to 12.

MISS GERTRUDE HOWARD, teacher of music at the Broadus Classical and Scientific Institute, Clarksburg, W. Va., favors friends here with invita- tions to the commencement which will occur June 9th.

MISS MATTIE HOPPER has returned from Nashville, where she graduated with honors at the Peabody University. She is now a graduate of two schools having previously graduated at Stan- ford Female College.

THREE of Stanford's prettiest girls are also her fastest. They are Misses Adele Sanfley, Susie Lasley and Pearl Burnside, and the way they gracefully glide on their bikes is enough to make a man's mind go glimmering.

MR. W. E. THARP, of Taylor county, is helping Dr. Cook on his residence. Mr. Tharp used to be mighty handy with the hammer and the saw, but he has given them up to a great extent to engage in the peaceful and pleasant pursuit of a farmer.

MISS MINNIE MUNDAY returned from the Normal School at Bowling Green yesterday.

LITTLE REUBEN WHITE is very ill with fever at his grand-father's, Mr. Reuben Williams.

A LIFE-LIKE picture of the noted lawyer, Col. T. P. Hill and a sketch of his useful life will appear in our next issue.

JAMES B. COOK, of Hustonville, is here having a lot of printing gotten out for Crittenden Springs, of which he is one of the managers.

THEIR legion of friends here are in receipt of invitations to the marriage of Miss Ellen Granger Owsley, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Letcher Owsley, to Mr. Wm. Robinson Cook, which will occur at the Christian church, Lancaster, at 8 P. M., June 10th.

THE Paragon says R. G. Hail bought a cottage on College Street in Som- erset of C. W. Adams for $1,100.

DEATH.—"Uncle" Wash Harris, aged 80, died at his home near Highland Friday and was buried in the family bury- ing ground the following day. He was a clever man and a well-known charac- ter.

WHILE returning home from town Friday, Mr. John F. Cash's horse be- came frightened and ran away. He was thrown out, but with the exception of a slight cut on one of his hands he was not hurt.

DEATH.—Mrs. George Martin, who was a daughter of Logan Murphy, and who has been ill of consumption for a long time, died Friday, aged about 40. Her husband and one grown child are left to feel her loss.

EX-CONFEDERATES with their fami- lies to the number of 30 have already signified their intention to attend the re-union at Nashville and they will leave here on the 3:15 train on the 21st, arriving in Louisville in time to catch the veteran special leaving there at noon.

WILL MAKE BRICK.—A. M. Pence, of this place, and Walter Greening, of Hustonville, have formed a partnership and will begin in a few days to make brick on a large scale. Mr. Pence's old yard will be used and a machine with a capacity of 25,000 per day has been ordered.

THE Louisville Times, and other bol- ticatronic papers, with space to throw away, are engaged in the unattainable effort of trying to make a silk purse out of a sow's ear, that is to say they are trying to make Boss Davison a great man. The story which it published Friday about his likeness to Dingley of Maine, and another fellow, isn't worth space even on toilet paper.

NO HUSBAND YET.—Mrs. Freedman, who was deserted by her husband here, writes Mrs. Mark Hardin that she has had no tidings from him yet and that she is still in Indianapolis dependent on the charitable people. She says her children cry daily to be taken back to Stanford, where they were treated so kindly by Mrs. Hardin and others. Mrs. Freedman is still of the opinion that her husband has destroyed himself, but probably there is no such good luck for her.

WE have all heard of bulls in china shops, but an equine in a dry goods store is considerably out of the ordi- nary. A horse belonging to Mr. S. H. Shanks got scared while grazing near the depot Friday and running down Lancaster street darted into W. H. Shanks' store at a break-neck speed. He ran back to the stove, knocked it over, looked around awhile and finally decided to go out. No damage was done except to the stove, but Forrest McClary, who was on duty and, several others, were frightened almost out of their wits.

THE eleutionary contest at Walton's Opera House, June 18, gives promise of being one of glittering brilliancy, all of the participants being gifted in the art. Miss Vera Ellis will represent State College, Lexington, subject "The Last Hymn;" Miss Nantie Wilson Bell, Beaumont College, Harrodsburg, "First Settler's Story;" Miss Lucile Clark, Danville, "The Daughter of France;" Miss Ida May Adams, Mt. Vernon, "The Death Bridge of the Tay;" Miss Susan Harris Woods, Stan- ford, "Vashti;" Mrs. Bessie Lyle Cher- ry, Bowling Green Business College, "Jack the Fisherman;" Miss Claudia Wilhoite, Nicholasville. The first prize will be an elegant $30 gold watch; second, a handsome $15 Paris Lamp. Tickets will be on sale at McRoberts' drug store in a few days. Miss Isabel- la Bailey will play a violin solo on the evening of the contest, by special re- quest.

FLOWER Crocks and Jardinieres of all kinds at Warren & Shanks.

THE weather has been cool again with showers yesterday and warmer. To-day will be fair and cooler.

I HAVE on sale at my gallery pic- tures of old Rush Branch Campbellite church. A. J. Earp, Photographer.

CRAIG JACKMAN was jerked down by a horse he was holding by the hal- ter the other day and had his collar bone broken.

THANKS.—John Engleman, the best gardener in Lincoln county, has the B. M.'s thanks for some of his new po- tatoes which are as large as goose eggs.

REV. G. C. SMITH, the sanctification preacher, showed us a coin yesterday made in Spain in 1723. He found it a few years ago where an old house was torn down in Rockcastle.

DISAGREED.—The jury in the suit of Owsley Evans' administrator against the Southern railroad at Versailles failed to agree and were discharged. It will be remembered that Mr. Evans was run over and killed and the suit was for $30,000 damages.

EVERYBODY is invited to attend the Memorial Day services of the Odd Fel- lows at the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock to-day and to assist in the deco- ration of the graves in Buffalo Cemete- ry at 3 P. M. Conveyances will be at the church for widows, orphans and mothers of deceased brothers.

A STOCK dividend of 25 per cent. will be paid to the stockholders of the First National Bank of Stanford June 22, on the presentation of their certificates. This will be the final dividend on the stock reduction of $100,000, so please mail to the bank or present your cer- tificate in person, in order that you may receive your dividend promptly. J. S. Hocker, President.

SOMEWHAT OF A COW RAISER.—Mr. James A. Dudderar, of the Gilberts Creek section, has been particularly lucky with his cows and starting with one or two, he now has a decent drove. Several years ago it was printed in these columns that one of his cows had raised three calves in a single year and now he tells us that another has had five in three years; twins twice and one once. All are living and three out of the five are fair milkers.

THE NEW CLEMENS.—Capt. Thomas Richards is in luck. He has accepted the management of the New Clemens House at Danville, which has been thoroughly remodeled, renovated and refurnished by its owner, Mr. Malcolm W. Weisiger, at a cost of $10,000. The captain tells us that it is the most elegantly furnished hotel in the State, no single room costing less than $200 to furnish, and that it is up-to-date in every particular. Mr. Weisiger promises that he shall start off with 35 boarders at least. He will also accommodate the transient trade. While our people will regret to have the captain and his fam- ily leave us, they are rejoiced at his good future and hope he will strike a gold mine. He is a born host and the New Clemens will step at once in to popular favor. The family will leave in about a week.

THE following school trustees, elect- ed Saturday, have been reported to su- perintendent, Miss Kate Blain: In Stanford, Dr. W. B. O'Bannon beat G. L. Penny and in the Stanford colored, Edmund Simpson beat Wm. Lackey; Hustonville, J. B. Adams; Riffe dis- trict, Emmett McCormack; Mt. Salem, Mac Wheat; Holmes district near Crab Orchard, K. D. Noakes; Kreiger, Jas. N. Smith; Pleasant Point, J. H. Leach; Locust Grove, W. P. Grimes; Smith's School-House, William Eason; May- wood, W. P. Stephenson; Floyd's dis- trict, W. B. McMullen; Ellison School- House, G. A. Caldwell; Waynesburg, T. J. Gooch, Jr.; Sauley, Richard Daugherty; Moore's School-House, R. W. Dunn and William Coffman; Pey- ton's Well, J. T. Carson. Very little interest was manifested in the election except at Hustonville and Mt. Salem, where considerable hustling was done.

CLUBBED, JAILED AND FINED.—J. H. Anderson, who tarried here awhile and went to Lancaster to clean old clothes, came over Friday with a fellow named William Clark, and proceeded to patronize the numerous saloons. He and his partner soon got hilarious, then boisterous and finally blasphemous. Marshal Newland warned them to des- ist, but they paid no attention to him, and when he at last told them they ei- ther had to go home or go to jail, An- derson assumed a defi. He cursed the officer and said he couldn't put him in jail. Newland started to show him that he could, when Anderson ran his hand into his pocket. The officer knew he always kept an open knife in it and as he did so he let him have it over his head with a billy. A couple of blows brought the drunken fellow to his senses and he and Clark were marched to jail to eat humble pie all night, An- derson in addition nursing his head, which bled a quart or so. Next morn- ing Judge Carson, under a promise from them that Stanford should know them no more forever, let them off with a fine of $2.50 each. Anderson gave a check on a Lancaster bank and they struck out, poorer, sadder and we hope wiser men.

PIE hunters were as thick as hops here yesterday to get the grey geld- ing's fluence. They worried the would- be statesman so much on the street that he was compelled to secure a hole in which to hide.

THE Hi Dudderar tract of land, con- taining 35 or 40 acres, situated at foot of Halls Gap, will be sold in front of court-house in Stanford, June 14, coun- ty court day, at about 2 P. M. Terms made known on that day. Mrs. Kate P. Miller, Ex'rs., &c.

GAVE HIM THE SLIP.—Marshal Pence, of Rowland, arrested Jesse Bel- den Sunday night for shooting on the street and took him to his house for the night. Yesterday morning when he was preparing to take him before the judge, Belden gave him the slip and has not since been seen.

AN old fellow from Harrodsburg by the name of Steele was drawn here by the holiness meeting and has been hold- ing forth on the streets to any crowd who would listen to him. He is evi- dently unbalanced mentally and is more the object of pity than ridicule. He is said to be one of the Rev. Lasley's Danville converts.

COMMENCEMENT.—A rarer day nev- er shone in leafy June than glad- dened the hearts of those who attended the beginning of the commencement exercises at the Presbyterian church Sunday. The sky was cloudless, the atmosphere was cool and invigorating and all nature seemed to smile benig- nantly on the pleasant occasion. The teachers and pupils, the latter arrayed in snowy white, filed into the crowded building at 11 and when the choir broke forth with "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow," the scene and the music was transporting, for the ladies never looked lovelier, nor did they ever display such pretty gowns nor millinery so lavishly be- decked with flowers. The choir sang a couple more of hymns, Miss Mary Cowan sang a solo and she and her handsome sister, Miss Mabel Cowen, who is also highly gifted with a splen- did voice, a beautiful duet, Misses Mary Cowen and Clara Mershon and Messrs. Joe F. Waters and C. A. Moore sang a quartette, all of which was greatly enjoyed. The preacher, Rev. J. F. Williams, of the Baptist church at Harrodsburg, then read Matthew 20 and took for his text the 13th verse, from which he delivered a discourse full of practical truths, eloquently ex- pressed. He is a fine orator, a gentle- man of distinguished appearance and made a deep impression on the au- dience. At the conclusion of the ser- mon the choir sang with the spirit and understanding the song "Stand Up for Jesus," and the large crowd dispersed. President Wm. Shelton and Revs. W. S. Grinstead and J. T. Sharrard took part in the services. The next of the exercises will be the art display at the College Wednesday afternoon, which will be enlivened by music. The an- nual concert occurs Thursday night at Walton's Opera House and the com- mencement at the same place at 10 o'clock Friday, all free except the con- cert, to which an admission fee of 25 cents will be charged; 35c for reserved seats.

CIRCUIT COURT convened at 9 A. M. yesterday, when the following grand jurors were sworn in:
Dr. J. T. Bohon, W. M. Curtis, D. R. Moore, S. T. Harris, Reuben Williams, J. D. Boone, J. M. Cash, Robert Bar- nett, W. T. Holdam, W. G. Routen, J. A. McKee and G. L. Murphy.

Judge Sauley delivered the charge in a clear and forcible manner and called especial attention to the new Martin law against mobs of all kinds, and turnpike raiders in particular, and inveighed in strong language against the latter form of lawlessness, charging the jury to take up the turnpike cases again and make a thorough in- vestigation and if possible indict the parties guilty of the outrages. He re- counted how costly it would be to the tax payers if all the gates had to be guarded, as they would be if further molestation of them was made. A court-house full of people listened to the words, which seemed to put the toll- gate destruction in a new light to them. Dr. Bohon was made foreman of the jury.

The petit jury selected is as follows: M. N. DePauw, R. H. Cooper, J. P. Riffe, W. A. Beazley, Thomas Rich- ards, W. H. Boone, E. B. Caldwell, Jr., G. E. Alford, G. D. Hopper, J. S. Mur- phy, J. P. Hubble, J. N. Menefee, J. S. Moberley, T. C. Rankin, J. K. Baugh- man, J. E. Wright, Jr., J. T. Jones, D. S. Riffe, J. J. McKinney, T. J. Hill, J. S. Hundley, A. G. Coffey, Josh Wilson, and S. M. Chandler.

The two cases against John Ander- son for breach of the peace and carry- ing concealed weapons and the one against Amanda Hamm for malicious shooting were stricken from the dock- et. Ben Castigan was acquitted of carry- ing concealed weapons on peremptory instructions, George Welch for de- taining a woman was dismissed and Odie Paul released on a charge of carry- ing concealed weapons, because wit- ness is out of the State. Cash Butler for disturbing religious worship at Point Pleasant was acquitted. The case of R. F. Campbell for shooting his wife was continued till to-day and the rest of the 51 cases continued till next term.
